ENACTS:

53A-11-102.6, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53A-11-102.5 is amended to read:

53A-11-102.5. Dual enrollment.

(1) "District school" means a public school under the control of a local school board elected pursuant to Title 20A, Chapter 14, Nomination and Election of State and Local School Boards.

~~[(1)]~~ (2) A person having control of a minor ~~[under this part]~~ who is enrolled in a regularly established private school or a home school may also enroll the minor in a public school for dual enrollment purposes.

~~[(2)]~~ (3) The minor may participate in any academic activity in the public school available to students in the minor's grade or age group, subject to compliance with the same rules and requirements that apply to a full-time student's participation in the activity.

~~[(3) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 53A-11-101.5 and 53A-11-102, a student enrolled in a public school may also be enrolled in a private school or a home school for dual enrollment purposes.]~~

(4) (a) A student enrolled in a dual enrollment program in a district school is considered a student of the district in which the ~~[public]~~ district school of attendance is located for purposes of state funding to the extent of the student's participation in the ~~[public]~~ district school programs.

(b) A student enrolled in a dual enrollment program in a charter school is considered a student of the charter school for purposes of state funding to the extent of the student's participation in the charter school programs.

(5) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the State Board of Education shall make rules for purposes of dual enrollment to govern and regulate the transferability of credits toward graduation that are earned in a private or home school.

~~[(6) The State Board of Education shall determine the policies and procedures necessary to permit students enrolled under Subsection (1) to participate in public school extracurricular activities.]~~

Section 2. Section 53A-11-102.6 is enacted to read:

53A-11-102.6. Private school and home school students' participation in extracurricular activities in a public school.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Academic eligibility requirements" means the academic eligibility requirements that a home school student is required to meet to participate in an extracurricular activity in a public school.

(b) "Basic skills competency test" means:

(i) the tenth grade basic skills competency test described in Section 53A-1-611; or

(ii) an assessment that is an alternative to the tenth grade basic skills competency test which is:

(A) administered by a school district or charter school piloting an assessment system described in Subsection 53A-1-603(5); and

(B) approved by the State Board of Education.

(c) "Principal" means the principal of the school in which a home school student participates or intends to participate in an extracurricular activity.

(2) (a) A minor who is enrolled in a private school or a home school shall be eligible to participate in an extracurricular activity at a public school as provided in this section.

(b) A private school student may only participate in an extracurricular activity at a public school that is not offered by the student's private school.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(d), a private school student or a home school student may only participate in an extracurricular activity at:

91 (i) the school within whose attendance boundaries the student's custodial parent or 92 legal guardian resides; or

93 (ii) the school from which the student withdrew for the purpose of attending a private 94 or home school.

95 (d) A school other than a school described in Subsection (2)(c)(i) or (ii) may allow a
96 private school student or a home school student to participate in an extracurricular activity
97 other than:

98 (i) an interscholastic competition of athletic teams sponsored and supported by a public
99 school; or

100 (ii) an interscholastic contest or competition for music, drama, or forensic groups or 101 teams sponsored and supported by a public school.

102 (3) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (4) through (13), a private school or home
103 school student shall be eligible to participate in an extracurricular activity at a public school
104 consistent with eligibility standards applied to a fully enrolled public school student.

105 (b) A school district or public school may not impose additional requirements on a
106 private school or home school student to participate in an extracurricular activity that are not
107 imposed on a fully enrolled public school student.

108 (4) Eligibility requirements based on school attendance are not applicable to a home
109 school student.

110 (5) A home school student meets academic eligibility requirements to participate in an 111 extracurricular activity if:

112 (a) the student is mastering the material in each course or subject being taught; and

113 (b) the student is maintaining satisfactory progress towards achievement or promotion.

114 (6) (a) To establish a home school student's academic eligibility, a parent, teacher, or 115 organization providing instruction to the student shall submit an affidavit to the principal
116 indicating the student meets academic eligibility requirements.

117 (b) Upon submission of an affidavit pursuant to Subsection (6)(a), a home school
118 student shall:

119 (i) be considered to meet academic eligibility requirements; and

120 (ii) retain academic eligibility ~~§→ [throughout the activity season and]~~ ←§ for all
120a extracurricular

121 activities ~~§→ during the activity season for which the affidavit is submitted~~ ←§ , until:

(A) a panel established under Subsection (10) determines the home school student does not meet academic eligibility requirements; or

(B) the person who submitted the affidavit under Subsection (6)(a) provides written notice to the school principal that the student no longer meets academic eligibility requirements.

(7) (a) A home school student who loses academic eligibility pursuant to Subsection (6)(b)(ii)(B) may not participate in an extracurricular activity until the person who submitted the affidavit under Subsection (6)(a) provides written notice to the school principal that the home school student has reestablished academic eligibility.

(b) If a home school student reestablishes academic eligibility pursuant to Subsection (7)(a), the home school student may participate in extracurricular activities for the remainder of the activity season for which an affidavit was submitted under Subsection (6)(a).

(8) A person who has probable cause to believe a home school student does not meet academic eligibility requirements may submit an affidavit to the principal:

(a) asserting the home student does not meet academic eligibility requirements; and

(b) providing information indicating that the home school student does not meet the academic eligibility requirements.

(9) (a) A principal shall review the affidavit submitted under Subsection (8), and if the principal determines it contains information which constitutes probable cause to believe a home school student may not meet academic eligibility requirements, the principal shall request the student's parent or guardian to submit the student's test scores for a basic skills competency test, if taken.

(b) §→ (i) ←§ If §→ [a] in response to a request made under Subsection (9)(a), test scores are submitted and the ←§ home school student's test scores on a basic skills competency test meet the requirement necessary for public school students to receive a basic high school diploma, as provided in Subsection 53A-1-611(2), the home school student shall be considered to be in compliance with the academic eligibility requirements.

§→ (ii) A home school student who meets academic eligibility requirements pursuant to Subsection (9)(b)(i) retains academic eligibility for all extracurricular activities during the activity season for which an affidavit is submitted pursuant to Subsection (6). ←§

(c) If a home school student who is the subject of an affidavit submitted under Subsection (8) has not taken or passed a basic skills competency test, the principal shall request a panel established pursuant to Subsection (10) to verify the student's compliance with academic eligibility requirements.

(10) §→ (a) ←§ A school district superintendent shall:

153 ~~§→ [(a)]~~ (i) ~~←§~~ appoint a panel of three ~~§→ [to five]~~ ~~←§~~ individuals who have experience
 153a in home
 153a schooling
 154 high school-age students to verify a home school student's compliance with academic eligibility
 155 requirements when requested by a principal pursuant to Subsection (9); and 156 ~~§→ [(b)]~~ (ii) ~~←§~~ select the panel members from nominees submitted by national, state, or 156a regional
 157 organizations whose members are home school students and parents.
 157a ~~§→~~ (b) One member of the panel appointed under Subsection (10) shall have experience
 157b teaching in a public school. ~~←§~~
 158 (11) A panel appointed under Subsection (10):
 159 (a) shall review the affidavit submitted under Subsection (8);
 160 (b) may confer with the person who submitted the affidavit under Subsection (8);
 161 (c) shall request the home school student to submit test scores or a portfolio of work
 162 documenting the student's academic achievement to the panel;
 163 (d) shall review the test scores or portfolio of work; and
 164 (e) shall determine whether the home school student meets academic eligibility
 165 requirements.
 166 (12) A home school student who meets academic eligibility requirements pursuant to
 167 Subsection ~~§→ [(9) or]~~ ~~←§~~ (11), retains academic eligibility ~~§→ [throughout the activity season~~
 167a ~~and]~~ ~~←§~~ for all
 168 extracurricular activities ~~§→~~ during the activity season for which an affidavit is submitted
 168a pursuant to Subsection (6) ~~←§~~ .
 169 (13) (a) A panel's determination that a home school student does not comply with 170 academic eligibility requirements is effective for an activity season and all extracurricular 171 activities that have academic eligibility requirements.
 172 (b) A home school student who is not in compliance with academic eligibility
 173 requirements as determined by a panel appointed under Subsection (11) may seek to establish 174 academic eligibility under this section for the next activity season.
 175 (14) A public school student who has been declared to be academically ineligible to 176 participate in an extracurricular activity and who subsequently enrolls in a home school shall 177 lose eligibility for participation in the extracurricular activity until the student:
 178 (a) demonstrates academic eligibility by providing test results or a portfolio of the 179 student's work to the school principal, provided that a student may not reestablish academic
 180 eligibility under this Subsection (14)(a) during the same activity season in which the student
 181 was declared to be academically ineligible;
 182 (b) returns to public school and reestablishes academic eligibility; or 183 (c) enrolls in a private school and establishes academic eligibility.

184 (15) When selection to participate in an extracurricular activity at a public school is 185 made on a competitive basis, a private school student and a home school student shall be
186 eligible to try out for and participate in the activity as provided in this section.

186a §→ (16)(a) If a student exits a public school to enroll in a private or home school
186b midsemester or during an activity season, and the student desires to participate in an
186c extracurricular activity at the public school, the public school shall issue an interim academic 186d assessment based on the student's work in each class.

186e (b) A student's academic eligibility to participate in an extracurricular activity under
186f the circumstances described in Subsection (16)(a) shall be based on the student meeting public
186g school academic eligibility standards at the time of exiting public school.

186h (c) A student may appeal an academic eligibility determination made under Subsection
186i (16)(b) in accordance with procedures for appealing a public school student's academic 186j eligibility. ←§
